

Your Journey... to Extraordinary

Dynamic Speaker Oscar-winning, Radio and TV Broadcaster.

Go ahead...Make a Mountain out of a Molehill!

It's a cliché that has us turning small challenges into insurmountable obstacles. But what if it was actually a good thing to turn molehills into mountains? Award-winning syndicated broadcaster and communications and media trainer Andrew McCrea provides an insightful look at moving small words to lofty heights. It's the right way to turn molehills into mountains – moving our thoughts and ideas to mighty ideas that move people to action.

Make Your Words Count

- Learn to organize your thoughts and deliver speeches that captivate and motivate audiences.
- Make “boring” reports, briefings and demonstrations come to life.
- Develop clear, concise and powerful presentations that audiences will remember and act upon.
- Use media opportunities to articulate and accentuate your message to thousands.
- Learn strategies to make your key points appeal to the media and the public.
- Lead meetings and conferences with poise and confidence

Scale the Tallest Peaks in Life

Begin moving your words to loftier heights - improve your communications and media skills. Let your ideas move people to action.

Andrew's award-winning book is perfect for one-on-one communication coaching, small group training, or large group workshops. He has trained executive officers from Fortune 500 companies, boards of directors, non-profit organizations and major colleges and universities to improve their personal communications techniques and learn the best practices to articulate their message to the public.

Andrew McCrea has been in the broadcasting and speaking/training industry for nearly twenty years. His work has taken him to all fifty states and six continents conducting thousands of interviews with everyone from Emmy and Grammy winners to “ordinary” individuals with extraordinary stories. His speeches have been heard in some of America's largest arenas by audiences of over 10,000 people.
